London, New York, Brussels:

Protesters on three continents are shutting down COVID 'vaccinations' this week in the wake of the recent historic conviction of Big Pharma, government, and church leaders by an international Court. And convicted Pharma CEO's are facing imminent arrest by Court Sheriffs in New York City and London.

On January 15, the International Common Law Court of Justice (ICLCJ) convicted corporate, government, and church leaders of Crimes against Humanity and ordered the arrest of seventy five individuals.

Last Monday and again today, ICLCJ Sheriffs armed with arrest warrants sought to detain the convicted felons Albert Bourla and Emma Walmsley, the CEO's of Pfizer and GlaxoSmithKline, at their homes in Scarsdale, New York, and Greenwich, England.

Both CEO's became incommunicado last weekend when news of their conviction was widely reported.

Meanwhile, new waves of protesters are halting COVID 'vaccinations' with new ICLCJ Warrants that allow anyone to lawfully refuse the COVID shots without fear of reprisals, to confiscate the banned drug as a "product of genocide and mass murder", and to prosecute anyone who imposes the COVID injections.(Copies of the Warrants are attached)

Yesterday, indigenous elders in Manitoba, Ontario and on Canada's west coast occupied reservation band offices and confiscated and destroyed the COVID 'vaccines', after issuing copies of the ICLCJ Warrants to the tribal police and RCMP. The police did not intervene.

Since Monday, and in more than a dozen communities across North America, Italy and England, Warrant-bearing protesters have shut down 'vaccination' centers and stopped the delivery of COVID shots to clinics and hospitals.
"These Warrants turn the table on the tyrants, and make giving and taking the COVID shots a crime," commented ICLCJ advisor Kevin Annett today.

"We call on everyone to use these Warrants to not only defend themselves but put an end to the COVID Corporatocracy. The police have been asked to assist us in making arrests, seizing the 'vaccines,' and restoring the rule of common law and justice in our communities."

The ICLCJ and its sponsoring common law Republics are organizing and educating people around the world to mobilize their communities to refuse the COVID 'vaccines', resist the COVID police state, and establish new sovereign nations.
